NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (8-2) at HOUSTON TEXANS (4-6)

Sunday, Nov. 23, 2003 ★ Reliant Stadium (71,054) ★ 1:00 p.m.

The division-leading New England Patriots travel to the Lone Star State this weekend to take on the Houston Texans. The Patriots have won eight of their last nine games, including six wins in a row, and hold a two-game advantage over the Miami Dolphins atop the AFC East standings. New England has won with a combination of solid team defense and an offense that has shown a knack for coming up with big plays. New England's defense has allowed six or fewer points in three of its last five games, including a 12-0 shutout over the Dallas Cowboys last week. The Patriots offense has produced four pass plays of 45 yards or more in the last two weeks, showing an element of explosiveness that can turn a game quickly to the Patriots' favor. This week against the Texans, New England will try to continue its strong run of play and further position itself for a strong finish to the 2003 regular season.

TELEVISION: This week's game will be televised by CBS. The game can be seen locally on WBZ-TV Channel 4 in Boston. Kevin Harlan will handle the play-by-play duties and Randy Cross will provide analysis. Immediately following the game, the Fifth Quarter postgame show can be seen on WSBK-TV Channel 38 in Boston.

RADIO: WBCN 104.1 FM is the flagship station for the Patriots Rock Radio Network. Play-by-play broadcaster Gil Santos is in his 27th season as the voice of the Patriots and calls the action along with Patriots Hall of Famer Gino Cappelletti. In 2003, Santos and Cappelletti celebrate their 20th season as a broadcast tandem.

STARTING STRONG

The Patriots have equaled the best 10-game start in franchise history with an 8-2 record through 10 games. New England is 8-2 for just the second time in team history, joining the 1978 squad with eight wins in their first 10 games. Like the 1978 team, the 2003 Patriots lost their first game, then rattled off eight wins in their next nine games. The Patriots are tied for the second best record in the NFL this season, joining Indianapolis, Carolina and Tennessee at 8-2.

RIISING TO THE OCCASION

The Patriots are 5-0 this season against teams that currently have winning records, proving that they have what it takes to compete with the NFL's elite. New England has beaten one 8-2 team (Tennessee) and two 7-3 teams (Dallas and Philadelphia). The Patriots also beat Miami and Denver, both of whom are 6-4. New England is the only team in the NFL with seven or more wins to have played as many as five games against teams above .500.

Team	Overall Record	Record vs. Winning teams	Team	Overall Record	Record vs. Winning teams
KC	9-1	1-0	DAL	7-3	1-1
NE	8-2	5-0	PHI	7-3	0-2
IND	8-2	2-1	SEA	7-3	1-0
TEN	8-2	2-2	STL	7-3	0-1
CAR	8-2	1-1	MIA	6-4	0-3

FANTASTIC FINISHES

One of the oldest mantras in sports is that it doesn't matter where you start a season, but it does matter where you finish it. The Patriots have done a remarkable job of finishing strong over the past two-plus seasons, as they have compiled a 19-4 (.826) record after November 1 since the 2001 season. In 2001, the Patriots hit their groove as the calendar turned to the 11th month, winning 11 of their last 12 games en route to the Super Bowl XXXVI title.

THIS WEEK: PATRIOTS VS. TEXANS

SERIES HISTORY

The Patriots and Texans will meet for the first time. This week's game will be the first for the Patriots in Houston since they paid a visit to play the Houston Oilers on Sept. 25, 1988. New England has played 14 games in Houston in franchise history, and holds a 5-9 overall record in those games. The Patriots and the Houston Oilers were old foes dating back to the days of the American Football League, playing twice a year from 1960-69 and 33 times overall before the Oilers moved to Tennessee following the 1996 season. The Patriots are 15-15 when playing a team for the first time. New England is facing a new team for the first time since Sept. 22, 1996, when they hosted the Jacksonville Jaguars at Foxboro Stadium and came up with a 28-25 overtime victory.

HISTORY IN HOUSTON

The Patriots have played 14 games in Houston in team history, all against the former Houston Oilers. New England compiled a 5-9 record in those games, most of which were played in the 1960s as part of the original AFL circuit. The results of each of New England's trips to Houston are listed below.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

The Patriots have an all-time record of 61-41-1 (.597) against the teams that make up the AFC South. It is the only division in the NFL where the Patriots own a winning record against all of the teams they have played. New England owns winning marks against Tennessee (19-16-1), Indianapolis (39-24) and Jacksonville (3-1). This week, the Patriots will meet the Houston Texans for the first time. In 2003, the Patriots play each of the four AFC South teams, having beaten Tennessee on Oct. 5 (38-30), then traveling to Houston this week then going to Indianapolis (11/30). New England closes out its slate against the AFC South by hosting Jacksonville on Dec. 14.

WITH A WIN THIS WEEK...

If the Patriots win this week, they will...

- > Establish the best start in franchise history with a 9-2 record.
- > Own a seven-game winning streak, their longest since they won nine regular season games in a row (11/25/01 to 09/22/02).
- > Have won seven straight games in a single season for the first time since they won seven in a row to close out the 1994 campaign.
- > Maintain at least a two-game lead in the AFC East race with five games to play.
- > Improve to 18-9 (.667) under Bill Belichick in the months of November and December.

THIS WEEK IN PATRIOTS HISTORY

The Patriots have a 13-11 record in Week 12 since the 16-game schedule began in 1978. Last season, the Patriots defeated the Minnesota Vikings 24-17 in Week 12 to improve to 6-5. Below are some memorable moments in Patriots history from the week of Nov. 17-23.

Nov. 23, 1998 — Drew Bledsoe led the Patriots to a dramatic 26-23 win over Miami at Foxboro Stadium despite fracturing the index finger on his throwing hand with two minutes left in the game. With the broken finger, Bledsoe led his team on an 80-yard game-winning drive that culminated in a 25-yard touchdown pass to Shawn Jefferson with 34 seconds left. Bledsoe completed 28 of 54 passes for 423 yards.

Nov. 23, 1997 — The Patriots jumped out to a 27-3 lead over the Miami Dolphins and held off a furious rally to hold on for a 27-24 win at Foxboro Stadium. Jimmy Hitchcock set a club record with a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, and Larry Whigham added a 60-yard interception return for a score. The Patriots had just seven offensive possessions in the game.

Nov. 20, 1994 — The Patriots defeated the San Diego Chargers 23-17 to win their second game in a string of seven consecutive wins to end the 1994 season. The winning streak brought the Patriots back to the playoffs for the first time since 1987 and marked a five-game turnaround in Robert Kraft's first season as owner.

Nov. 23, 1988 — Robert Kraft purchased Sullivan Stadium out of bankruptcy court to begin the pursuit towards his goal of owning the Patriots. Kraft's purchase of the stadium was an invaluable asset to keep the team in New England, as the Patriots had a binding lease through 2001. In 1994, instead of accepting a buyout, Kraft bought the Patriots and ensured that the team would remain in New England.

Nov. 17, 1985 — The Patriots defeated the Seattle Seahawks 20-13 at the Kingdome to complete a six-game winning streak that raised their record to 8-3 en route to an 11-5 season and the first AFC Championship in franchise history.

Nov. 18, 1984 — New England beat Indianapolis 50-17 at the Hoosier Dome, marking the largest road point output in team history. Tony Eason completed 29 of 42 passes for 291 yards and four touchdowns. Mosi Tatupu ran for a pair of scores in the second half to complete the big win.

THIS WEEK: PATRIOTS VS. TEXANS

Stevens saw action in the Patriots Super Bowl XXXVI win over St. Louis.

THE HEAD COACHES

BILL BELICHICK

Overall Record: 73-70 (.510)
 Regular Season: 69-69 (.500)
 Postseason: 4-1 (.800)
 With New England overall: 36-25 (.590)
 Overall since Oct. 26, 2001: 30-11 (.732)

Bill Belichick is celebrating his 29th consecutive season as an NFL coach, and has been one of the most successful coaches in the league over the past three decades. He has been a part of three Super Bowl championship teams, including the memorable victory in Super Bowl XXXVI that brought the Patriots their first title in franchise history. Belichick has ensured that the spark of the Super Bowl season ignited a run of success that will last well into the future. Since Oct. 14, 2001, the Patriots have blossomed, rattling off 30 wins in their last 41 games and making Belichick the winningest NFL Head Coach since Week Four of the 2001 season.

DOM CAPERS

Overall Record: 39-53 (.424)
 Regular Season: 38-52 (.422)
 Postseason: 1-1 (.500)
 With Houston overall: 8-18 (.308)
 Overall since Oct. 26, 2001: 8-18 (.308)

Dom Capers was named the first head coach in Texans history on Jan. 21, 2001, and has led his young team to eight wins in his first season-and-a-half. Capers has experience in leading new franchises to early success after bringing the Carolina Panthers to the NFC Championship Game in 1996, just the second season in the history of the franchise. Last season, Capers directed the Texans to four victories, including a win over Dallas in the first game in franchise history. Capers entered the NFL in 1986 as the defensive backs coach for New Orleans. He was the defensive coordinator for Pittsburgh from 1992-94, before spending four seasons as the head coach of the Panthers. He served as the defensive coordinator for Jacksonville from 1999-2000 before accepting the job in Houston.

PASSING PERFORMANCES

Tom Brady will start against the Texans for the first time in his career. Brady has compiled a record of 16-7 (.696) when facing a team for the first time. This season, he is 3-1 (.750) when facing new teams (Philadelphia, Washington, N.Y. Giants and Dallas). Last week, Brady was under center for the Patriots' 12-0 win over Dallas in his first game against the Cowboys.

SAVING THE BEST FOR LAST

The Patriots have six games left in the 2003 season, and since Bill Belichick took over as head coach in 2000, the Patriots have saved their best football for the end of the season. Since 2000, New England is a combined 13-5 (.722) in its last six games of the campaign. Last year, the Patriots were 4-2 in their last six games, following a 2001 season where they closed out with a 6-0 record.

THE ROAD AHEAD

The combined record of the Patriots' remaining opponents is 27-33 (.450), giving the Patriots the easiest remaining schedule in the AFC East. Buffalo's remaining foes are 37-23 (.617), and Miami's are 33-27 (.550). The Jets' remaining opponents are 31-29 (.517). New England has dates on tap with Houston (4-6), Indianapolis (8-2), Miami (6-4), Jacksonville (2-8), New York Jets (3-7) and Buffalo (4-6).

LAST GAME: PATRIOTS 12, COWBOYS 0

PATRIOTS 12, COWBOYS 0

November 16, 2003 ★ Gillette Stadium (Att: 68,436)

	1	2	3	4	Final
Dallas Cowboys	0	0	0	0	— 0
New England Patriots	3	6	0	3	— 12

The Patriots posted their first shutout in seven years to improve to 8-2 with a 12-0 win over the Dallas Cowboys and former Patriots head coach Bill Parcells. In a heavily hyped game that proved to be a defensive battle, the Patriots defense came up with three second-half interceptions to thwart the Dallas attack and seal the win. The Patriots used two Adam Vinatieri field goals and a 2-yard run by Antowain Smith for the margin of victory. Two big offensive plays – a 57-yard completion from Tom Brady to David Givens and a 46-yarder to Deion Branch – set up the Patriots' first two scores and took control of the game.

New England held a 9-0 lead into the second half before Dallas began to mount a threat. With the Cowboys driving at the New England 19-yard line in the fourth quarter, Ty Law picked off a Quincy Carter pass to halt the Dallas drive. On the Cowboys' next possession, Tedy Bruschi broke into the backfield to drop Troy Hambrick for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-inches at midfield. Dallas' final two possessions were ended by interceptions by Tyrone Poole and Law to seal the win on a big night for the New England defense.

SHUTOUT

The Patriots defense posted the 18th shutout in franchise history with the 12-0 win over Dallas. It was the first shutout by the Patriots since they beat the Arizona Cardinals 31-0 at Foxboro Stadium on Sept. 15, 1996. The Patriots went 128 games (including playoffs) between shutouts.

GOING DEEP

Tom Brady hit two deep passes against Dallas, both leading to scores and giving him seven completions of more than 45 yards this season. Brady hit Deion Branch for a 46-yard gain in the first quarter, making the big play on a field goal drive that gave the Patriots a 3-0 lead. Brady then found David Givens for a 57-yard gain in the second quarter, as the Patriots extended their lead to 9-0 on a 2-yard touchdown run by Antowain Smith.

Before this season, Brady had just two completions of longer than 45 yards, one each in 2001 and 2002. Last year, Brady completed just one pass of more than 45 yards, a 49-yard touchdown to Branch in Week Two against the Jets (09/15/02). In 2001, Brady completed a franchise-long 91-yard touchdown to David Patten at Indianapolis (10/21/01).

LAW AND ORDER

Ty Law picked off a Quincy Carter pass at the Patriots 19-yard line with 2:26 left in the second quarter to halt a Cowboys drive that entered the Patriots' red zone for the first time all night. Law came up with his second pick of the game when he intercepted Carter in the end zone with 11 seconds left. The final pick was Law's fourth interception of the season, putting him into the team lead. Law has 33 picks in his career and is the Patriots' second-leading career interceptor, edging him closer to Raymond Clayborn's franchise record of 36 interceptions.

ON TARGET

Adam Vinatieri hit a 23-yard field goal in the first quarter to give the Patriots a 3-0 lead. It was his 10th successful field goal in his last 11 tries. Vinatieri had a streak of 86 consecutive successful extra points snapped when Flozell Adams blocked his try in the second quarter. The last time Vinatieri missed an extra point was on Oct. 14, 2001, when Ed Ellis blocked a try for San Diego.

PICK PARTY

Ty Law's fourth-quarter interception was the third of the game for New England and the 16th interception of the season for the team. The Patriots now have at least one pick in each of their last six games, and have recorded an interception in nine of their 10 games this season. Last season the Patriots had 18 interceptions as a team and had picks in 10 of their 16 games.

FULL TILT, FULL TIME

Tedy Bruschi broke through the Dallas line to drop Troy Hambrick for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-inches in the fourth quarter. Dallas was at midfield and decided to go for it to try to crack onto the scoreboard late in the game. Bruschi ran in through the middle and nailed Hambrick in the backfield to give the Patriots the ball back, helping to preserve the shutout.

DAVID GIVENS

David Givens hauled in a 57-yard pass from Tom Brady in the second quarter on a Patriots touchdown drive that made the score 9-0. It was the longest catch of Givens' career, and the sixth pass of 45 yards or more by Brady this season. Givens caught the ball, froze, and put a move on Dallas' Terence Newman to break free and extend the gain. In all, Givens had two catches for 67 yards.

TYRONE POOLE

Tyrone Poole recorded his third interception of the season in the fourth quarter, picking off a Quincy Carter pass intended for Terry Glenn. It was the 13th interception of Poole's career. Poole's previous two picks this season came against the New York Giants and the Miami Dolphins.

ANTOWAIN SMITH

Antowain Smith ran the ball in from two yards out in the second quarter to give the Patriots a 9-0 lead. It was Smith's second touchdown run of the season and the 46th of his career. The Patriots are now 15-2 (.882) in games where Smith has a touchdown run. Smith's other touchdown this season came in the Patriots' 38-30 win over Tennessee at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 5.

QUICK HITS

- Tedy Bruschi tackled Dallas running back Troy Hambrick for a 1-yard loss in the first quarter.
- Richard Seymour broke through the Dallas line to drop Richie Anderson for a 3-yard loss late in the first quarter.
- Including the game against Dallas, the Patriots have lost nine straight coin tosses, dating back to Week Two at Philadelphia. The streak includes the overtime toss at Miami.
- The Patriots scored in the first quarter for the ninth straight game, and have not trailed coming out of the first quarter for nine straight games.
- Ty Law batted a pass out of the hands of Antonio Bryant at the Patriots' 10-yard line midway as Dallas made a bid for a deep bomb midway through the third quarter.
- Tyrone Poole ran step-for-step with Bryant and batted away a pass at the Patriots' 5-yard line with five minutes left in the first half.

"12" IS THE NUMBER

The Patriots' 12-0 win over Dallas was the 12th time in team history the Patriots have scored 12 or fewer points and won. It's the fifth time in Patriots history the team has scored exactly 12 points. The Patriots are 4-1 in those games. This season marks the second time in franchise history the Patriots have won two games scoring 12 points or less, having beat Cleveland 9-3 (10/26/03) in addition to the win over Dallas. In 1988, the Patriots beat Tampa Bay 10-7 and Miami by a score of 6-3.

PATRIOTS NEWS AND NOTES

WORKING OVERTIME

The Patriots have won their last seven overtime games (including the playoffs). The Patriots' seven-game overtime winning streak is the longest in the NFL. The Patriots have won one overtime game this season, defeating the Dolphins 19-13 in Miami on an 82-yard touchdown from Tom Brady to Troy Brown (10/19/03). New England has not lost in overtime since Buffalo won 16-13 at Foxboro Stadium on Nov. 5, 2000. Since that time, the Patriots have won seven straight, including five games in which they scored on their first possession of overtime.

O.T. IS THE PLACE TO BE

The Patriots have won seven straight overtime games and own the longest current overtime winning streak in the NFL. The streak also includes New England's 16-13 "Snow Game" win over Oakland in the 2001 Divisional Playoffs (01/19/02). The seven-game streak is tied for the longest streak in NFL history, including the playoffs (see below).

BEAST OF THE EAST

The Patriots are 11-3 in their last 14 games against the AFC East. New England has the best record among AFC East teams in division games since the beginning of the 2001 season (12-5). The New York Jets are second with a 10-7 record. Miami has gone 9-8 in the division since 2001 and Buffalo has a 4-13 record (see below).

Team	Division W-L Since 2001	Team	Division W-L Since 2001
Patriots	12-5	Miami	9-8
New York Jets	10-7	Buffalo	4-13

DEFENSIVE SCORING

The Patriots are tied for the NFL lead with four defensive touchdowns in 2003. Baltimore, Tampa Bay and Tennessee also have recorded four defensive scores. Three of the Patriots' defensive scores have come off of interceptions returned for a touchdown, a category in which New England is tied for the NFL lead with the Titans, Buccaneers and Chiefs. The Patriots have won all four of their games in which they have scored a defensive touchdown this season. The Patriots are 10-2 in their last 12 games in which they have scored a defensive touchdown, dating back to the 1999 season. This year's defensive scores are listed below.

TEDY BRUSCHI: FULL TILT, FULL TIME

TEDY BRUSCHI has returned each of his last three interceptions for touchdowns, becoming the first player in team history to return three consecutive interceptions for touchdowns. Bruschi's three touchdowns came in a span of five games in which he played. Bruschi ranks second on the Patriots all-time list with three career picks brought back for touchdowns. Teammate Ty Law holds the club record with six interceptions returned to the end zone. Bruschi's last three interception returns are listed below.

BELICHICK'S PATRIOTS RENAISSANCE

Patriots Head Coach Bill Belichick was facing one of the biggest challenges of his coaching career on Oct. 14, 2001. Going into a game against the San Diego Chargers at Foxboro Stadium, the coach was faced with a 1-3 record, a young quarterback and a team that few people expected would eventually hoist the Lombardi Trophy less than four months later. The Patriots rebounded from a 10-point deficit and won that day, topping San Diego 29-26 in overtime and igniting a run that took New England to the top of the NFL world in winning Super Bowl XXXVI. The victory also started a run that has seen Belichick compile the best record of any NFL head coach since Week Four of the 2001 season, leading his team to wins in 30 of its last 41 games. The remarkable run includes postseason play, where Belichick and the Patriots own a perfect 3-0 record.

TURNING OVER WINS

The Patriots are 7-0 this season when they record a positive or even turnover ratio, and are 1-2 when they have a negative turnover ratio. Since the beginning of the 2001 season, the Patriots are 17-2 when they record a positive turnover differential. New England notched a +5 turnover differential in its Week Six win over the New York Giants. It was their greatest turnover advantage since they also came out ahead by five turnovers in a 27-17 win over Buffalo (12/08/02). New England is tied for second in the AFC with a +9 turnover differential this season.

STINGY ON THIRD DOWN

The Patriots rank fourth in the NFL in allowing their opponents just 44 conversions in 139 third-down opportunities (31.7 percent). In 2002, the Patriots allowed their opponents to convert on third down 43 percent of the time. So far this season, the Patriots have held their opponents to less than a 30 percent third-down conversion rate on five separate occasions and have won four of the five games, including a 30-26 win over Denver on Monday Night Football in Week Nine. Over a three-game span from Weeks Two through Four, the Patriots allowed their opponents just seven conversions in 38 tries (18.4 percent).

DRAFT=CLASS

The Patriots' 2003 draftees have been hailed as the best crop in the NFL, and in looking at the draft class from top to bottom, it's hard to disagree with that perception. New England's top six picks have all started at least one game, and each has made a noticeable contribution to the Patriots' success. Below is a player-by-player breakdown of the 2003 draft class, listed by round.

1 Ty Warren, DT — Started four games, while playing in all 10 contests ... Has been a contributor to a solid defensive line that has helped the Patriots rank sixth in the NFL in stopping the run ... Has made 25 tackles, including a sack.

2a Eugene Wilson, DB — Has started nine of 10 games at free safety ... Tied for the lead among all NFL rookies with three interceptions ... Ranks sixth on the team with 40 tackles and has batted away seven passes.

2b Bethel Johnson, WR/KR — Serves as New England's primary kickoff returner and has started two of 10 games at wide receiver ... Has broken off three kick returns of 50 yards or more, including a 71-yarder against Tennessee (10/5) ... Has caught 8 passes for 128 yards.

4a Dan Klecko, DL — Has proven to be a valuable versatile presence in all phases of the game ... Has made 10 tackles, including 1.5 sacks while playing nose tackle, defensive end and outside linebacker ... Has lined up as a fullback on occasion, tallying two carries and blocking on four of the team's six touchdown runs.

4b Asante Samuel, CB — Has taken on a role as the Patriots' nickel back ... Tied for fourth among NFL rookies with two interceptions ... Named AFC Rookie of the Week after returning an interception 55 yards for a touchdown against the New York Jets (09/21/03) ... Has made 20 tackles and batted seven passes.

5 Dan Koppen, C — Has started nine of 10 games at center and has been a valuable part of an effective offensive line ... Has helped New England average just over one sack allowed over the past four weeks ... Part of an improved running game that has broken the 100-yard barrier five times in 2003.

6 Kliff Kingsbury, QB — Injured Reserve

7a Spencer Nead, TE — Released; now with St. Louis.

7b Tully Banta-Cain — Has played in four games after spending time on Reserve/PUP, and has registered six special teams tackles and a defensive stop.

7c Ethan Kelley, DT — Patriots practice squad.

OFFENSE NEWS AND NOTES

TROY BROWN'S RECORD RUN

TROY BROWN has grabbed over 300 receptions since the beginning of the 2000 season, adding to his record run. Brown's 308 catches over a span of three-plus seasons is the most productive stretch by any receiver in Patriots history. Tight end Ben Coates ranks second with a total of 279 catches in a similar time span from (1994-97).

SPREADING THE FIELD

TOM BRADY has continued his tradition of utilizing all of the weapons at his disposal. Through 10 games, the New England signal caller has completed a pass to an average of 7.2 receivers per game. Last season, Brady completed a pass to seven or more receivers in 13 of 16 games. So far this year, he's used seven or more receivers six times.

OVERDRIVE IN OVERTIME

TOM BRADY owns a career record of 6-0 in overtime, including the postseason. Brady is the all-time NFL leader in overtime wins without a defeat. Brady and former Steelers signal caller Terry Bradshaw are the only two NFL quarterbacks to be undefeated in overtime (minimum of five games). The top six quarterbacks in overtime are listed below.

Regular and postseason games combined.

SOLID DOWN THE STRETCH

Tom Brady has compiled a 19-4 career record as a starter in games played after November 1. The streak includes the Patriots' 2001 playoff run. So far this year, Brady has led the team to wins in both of his starts after the beginning of November. Last season, Brady and the Patriots were 6-3 in the final two months of the season, rebounding from a 3-4 start to finish with a 9-7 record. In 2001, Brady led the team to an 11-1 record after November 1 as the team marched to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI.

COMEBACK KID

TOM BRADY has engineered 11 comebacks in the fourth quarter or overtime in his career, including rebounding from a 26-23 deficit with 2:51 left in Week Nine at Denver. In that game, Brady completed four of five passes for 58 yards on the game-winning drive. In 2002, Brady led three comebacks from a tie or deficit, including a dramatic 27-24 overtime win over Miami in the season finale. Brady's comeback record includes his dramatic performance to lead the Patriots to victory in Super Bowl XXXVI and his memorable performance in the snow against the Oakland Raiders in the 2001 Divisional Playoffs.
