WILLIAM H. SULLIVAN, JR.

PRESIDENT

Until 1959 New England had been a graveyard for more than a half dozen professional football teams. William H. "Billy" Sullivan, Jr. changed that.

On November 18, 1959, Billy was awarded the eighth franchise in the fledgling American Football League. He has made an indelible impact on the nation's No. 1 sport since that great day. He did get a team on the field. From 1961 to 1964 he was President of the AFL and served on the television committee that authored a $36 million contract with NBC to guarantee survival of the young league. He was a key member of the AFL's team that hammered out the merger format with the NFL, he still serves as a director of both NFL Properties and Films.

Since starting his love affair with pro football, Billy has travelled through many valleys and over many peaks. By undaunted determination and a boundless capacity for hard work, he kept the Patriots alive until locating the team in its present 61,279-seat Schaefer Stadium home, and assumed full control of the franchise by purchasing 88 per cent of the voting stock on Nov. 7, 1975 and all of the non-voting stock on Dec. 8, 1976.

Billy graduated from Boston College in 1937, served as Publicity Director at his alma mater from 1938-1940. In 1941 he went to Notre Dame as special assistant to the Director of Athletics. After a hitch on the staff of the U. S. Naval Academy, he joined the Boston Braves baseball team as Director of Public Relations in 1946. During his six-year tenure with the Braves he conceived the "Jimmy Fund" that has since grown to be an internationally known cancer research program studying leukemia in children.

In 1955 he joined Metropolitan Petroleum Co. and became President of the company in 1958. And, although no one can figure out how he does it, Billy also serves on the Board of Directors of a dozen or more major businesses, banks and charities.

Whether it's the Metropolitan oil business or the Patriots fortunes in the NFL, Billy Sullivan has the same, unwavering philosophy, "The best is yet to come."

CHUCK FAIRBANKS

GENERAL MANAGER AND HEAD COACH

Charles Leo "Chuck" Fairbanks became the sixth in a line of Patriots' head coaches when he joined the organization in the dual capacity of general manager-head coach on January 26, 1973.

Coach Fairbanks came to the Patriots from a remarkably successful career as a college football coach during which he led Oklahoma to a fantastic 52-15-1 record over six years. Prior to his term with the Sooners, his coaching career had run the full cycle from high school ranks through collegiate assistant, and has spanned more than two decades.

Since assuming control of the helm of the Patriots forces, coach Fairbanks has more than lived up to the reputation that preceded him to New England—strong organizer, promotes the image of oneness among his charges, strives for solidarity and believes in esprit de corps. All of these qualities are applied on the field via his role as head coach, and in the front office which he directs as the General Manager.

In 1976, after three patient years of rebuilding, led the Patriots to an 11-3 record, best in the history of the franchise, and into the playoffs for the first time in 13 years where they lost a last second tilt to the eventual Super Bowl Champion.

Coach Fairbanks was born in Detroit on June 10, 1933 and was educated at Charlevoix (Mich.) High School and Michigan State ('55). An all-State end in high school, he played under Biggie Munn with the Spartans' 1952 national champion team and the '53 Big Ten champs who defeated UCLA in the Rose Bowl. He finished off his collegiate career under Duffy Daugherty and earned a berth in the Blue-Gray all-star classic.

He launched his coaching career in 1955 as a student assistant at Michigan State's spring drills. His first head coaching assignment was at Ishpeming (Mich) High School, 1955-57, and he moved to the collegiate ranks under Frank Kush at Arizona State where he served as defensive backfield coach from 1958-61. From 1962 to 64 he was backfield coach at Houston and in '65 he was named assistant head coach under Bill Yeoman. The following year he became defensive backfield coach at Oklahoma and took over the top post in 1967.

10-4 vs. NFC SINCE '72

The Patriots have shown a remarkable turn-about in their success against NFC teams over the past five years as opposed to their efforts in the first two years after the AFL-NFL merger. The Patriots failed to show a single victory in the first two years, dropping six in a row. Since then, the Patriots have posted a 10-4 record and of the four losses, only one has been by more than a touchdown.

BOSTON AND PRO FOOTBALL

Pro football goes back more than 50 years in the Boston area, to the Bulldogs who played the 1926 season at Fenway Park. Folding after just one season, Bulldogs II didn't come along for their single season until 1929. In 1932 there was the Boston Braves, changed the name to Boston Redskins for the 1933-36 seasons and then became the Washington Redskins in 1937. The Boston Shamrocks lasted from 1936 thru 1938 and the Boston Bears came in for the 1940 season. The Boston Yanks were on the scene for 1944-48 before becoming the New York Bulldogs for two years, the New York Yanks for two seasons (1950-51), the Dallas Texans in 1952, and what is now the Baltimore Colts in 1953. The Patriots brought pro football back to the area in 1960.

SCHAEFER STADIUM

Schaefer Stadium was built at the cost of $6.7 million and financed through the private sale of more than 400,000 shares of stock in Stadium Realty Trust. The official ground breaking ceremony took place on Sept. 23, 1970, and 326 days later (Aug. 15, 1971) the first game was played at the new Foxboro facility in which the Patriots posted a 20-14 victory over the New York Giants before 60,423 fans.

With space to park 16,000 automobiles surrounding the stadium, the site covers an area of 15 acres and is as long as it is wide, 700 feet. In the process of excavating the bowl shape for the stadium, 250,000 cubic yards of earth were removed from the 35-foot deep hole. The J. F. White Construction Co. then used 15,000 cubic yards of concrete and 660 tons of steel to erect the stadium.

In 1976 the original Poly-Turf playing surface was removed, an entirely new drainage system installed, the field crown raised four inches, and the entire field resurfaced with a new Super-Turf carpet. Lighting is provided by three towers with 324 mercury lamps (1500 watts per), 200 candle power per square foot on the playing field.

Seating is constructed of aluminum with a capacity of 61,279. There are 5604 special box (chairs) seats, 48,710 seats on the sidelines, and 6965 end zone seats.

Through the 1976 season there have been 60 pre-season and regular season games played in Schaefer Stadium. A total of 3,203,029 fans (53,383 per game) have watched the Patriots games at Schaefer Stadium.
