LOS ANGELES RAMS VS. NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS

ANAHEIM STADIUM MONDAY, AUGUST 11, 1980

NOTES FROM THE DRESSING ROOMS:

FROM THE RAMS -- COACH RAY MALAVASI: "Naturally, I felt Vince played extremely well. But I thought Pat did too. The difference, of course, was that Vince put the ball in the end zone and his receivers made some fine catches.

"Sure, it hurts to have some of the best pass rushers out of there, like Jack Jack Youngblood and Larry Brooks.

"It was much noisier here than at the Coliuseum. Everyone on the sidelines was aware of the crowd.

"We did some good things out there and we did some bad things. I don't think we got anybody hurt seriously."

FROM THE PATRIOTS: COACH RON EARHARDT: "We were fortunate tonight in that we could see all of the people that we did.

"Our problem was that we gave up the easy pass. We have a lot to work on in that area.

"The best thing was that I felt that our defensive rookies had a good feel for the game. We also had great pass protection.

"Overall, I say we have a lot to work on on defense."
